THE

COLLECTANEA TOPOGRAPHICA ET GENEALOGICA

is now complete in Eight Volumes, Royal 8vo. price 8*l.* 8*s.* in boards.

THE Contents of this Work are strictly confined to materials before unpublished, and its principal objects are as follow:

1. To form a vehicle for the publication of detached essays in Topography and Genealogy.

2. To publish records, or abstracts of records, of general value to all topographers, but not likely to obtain the attention of a Record Commission.

3. To furnish a receptacle for valuable documents incidentally occurring, but foreign to the objects immediately in pursuit.

4. To fix and preserve scattered fragments of information.

In these eight volumes much is for the first time made accessible to the Local Historian and Genealogist; much is collected for the correction and improvement of those three great works of Dugdale, Tanner, and Dodsworth, the Baronage, the Notitia Monastica, and the Monasticon Anglicanum; and the Publishers have gratefully to acknowledge that they have been honoured with the contributions of many of the most distinguished Antiquaries of the present day. Among these may be mentioned the late Historians of Surrey, Durham, Northumberland, and Suffolk; the Historians of Cheshire, South Yorkshire, North Durham, and Northamptonshire; of Axminster, Exeter, St. Neot's, and Croydon; Sir T. Phillipps, Bart., Sir F. Madden, K.H., Sir C. G. Young, Garter King of Arms, Sir Harris Nicolas, G.C.M.G., the Rev. Bulkeley Bandinel, D.D. Bodleian Librarian, and many others well known in topographical and genealogical literature.

Each Volume of Collectanea is provided with very copious and complete Indexes of Matters, Places, and Persons; and a general Summary of the Contents of the Work is appended to the last Volume, of which the following is an abridged synopsis:—
